WHEREAS, court users include diverse groups of individuals with different cultural and educational backgrounds and linguistic capabilities, including people with limited literacy, with limited English proficiency, and with learning, cognitive, physical, and other disabilities; and

WHEREAS, courts at all levels must communicate court procedures and legal requirements clearly and effectively to all individuals so that they may be full participants in the justice system; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that Conference of Chief Justices and Conference of State Court Administrators urge courts, when drafting policies, procedures, and protocols, as well as associated documents, forms, and other information, (1) to write in a manner that is clear, concise, and easily comprehensible to all court users; (2) to make them publicly available online and in physical locations where they are readily accessible to court users; and (3) where possible, to make them uniform statewide within the court system; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Conference of Chief Justices and Conference of State Court Administrators urge courts to explore other ways, in addition to plain language, to help court users navigate the justice system, including: visual prompts (design features, infographics, symbols and signage); online services (web content, social media, explanatory videos, audio content, live chat platforms); and other public information tools (kiosks, public service campaigns, applications for mobile electronic devices and other technologies); and
